

IDAHO DEMOCRATS.

Smith went down at the commencement of the third round, but got up and went to the big man, but the moral of it, and went down again. Goddard landed a right on the ear, and it floored Smith. When the round closed, Smith was very tired.

In the fourth Smith kept going down to avoid punishment, as was the case in the fifth. The referee cautioned Smith. In the sixth Smith started in to fight, but Goddard sent him down and sent him to the floor the second time as he staggered to his feet.

The police again interfered and Goddard, taking advantage of the interference, knocked Smith under the ropes. The referee then declared the fight a draw on account of police interference.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

The Supervising Architect of the World's Fair Government Building in Trouble.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Two of the treasury officials arrived this morning and began a secret investigation of the charges against Supervising Architect Ball, in charge of the work on the World's fair government building. The architect is allowed successful contractor to see the bids of his competitors before the bids were officially announced and permitted him to change his bid so as to make it the lowest.

Ball's complaint denied the charges of any other irregularities. The witnesses of the opening of the bids asserted that as far as they were able to discover, everything was done regularly.

LABOR TROUBLES.

The Railroad Switchmen Now Looking for Work.

Master Workman Sweeney Assailed—Strikers Claim They Were Deceived by Him—Situation of Other Strikes.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—As a result of the midnight order, declaring the strike a failure, idle switchmen are seen this morning, many trying to get back in the old places. Some of them will succeed.

Troops have begun to move homeward. About 1,500 will go now and the remainder in a few days.

SHOT IN THE ABDOMEN.

Michael Broderick, a 17-year-old boy, persisted in throwing stones at the soldiers of the Twenty-second regiment today, and was seriously and probably fatally shot in the abdomen.

SWEENEY ASSAULTED.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Near 11 o'clock this morning, a crowd of switchmen surrounded Master Workman Sweeney, demanding that he declare a strike from New York to Chicago. Words ensued and Switchman Quinn of the Nickel-Plate yards struck Sweeney a forcible blow, knocking him down and throwing him in streams from Sweeney's nose.

Quinn got his leader's head against the telegraph pole and punched and pounded him until he was unconscious. Excitement prevailed. A visit to the various railroad offices elicited the information that the roads will not take back the strikers to old places in a body. Many will not be taken back at all and must make their application soon, as the new men will be considered in the same order as other applicants.

Sweeney had his wounds dressed in a drug store. A number of strikers assembled on the sidewalks in front of the place and threatened to do further violence to the grand master. Sweeney was frightened and the police dispersed the mob.

A bitter feeling against Sweeney has developed among the late strikers, who contend they have been deceived and betrayed by him. One of them stated that Sweeney had given them no chance to get their places back again.

Evening Session.

At 8 o'clock the opera house was jammed, packed to the walls by a pulsating crowd. The fifth ballot showed little result of all the labor. Stevenson had 40; Burke, 34; Ballentine, 13; Guise and Shoshone changing to Stevenson and two votes in Shoshone leaving Stevenson and going to Burke.

Sixth Ballot—Stevenson lost one in Shoshone and one in Washington, both going to Ballentine.

Seventh Ballot—Three more Shoshone votes left Stevenson. Both this and up to the eighth ballot stood, Stevenson, 41; Burke, 34; Ballentine, 20.

Ninth Ballot—Stevenson gained one from Ballentine in Washington.

Then came the tenth ballot. When Bear Lake county was called Jo Rich made a good speech, saying Ballentine was the choice, but it was impossible for him to win. Bear Lake would cast its entire vote to the man who, it had confidence, could carry the state for the Democracy—John M. Burke.

The yeas that arose defy description. J. W. Eden swung Bingham's seven for Burke; Onida followed suit with three votes, Shoshone voted six for Stevenson and two for Burke, and that gave the nomination to Burke, 49 to 46 for Stevenson.

A motion made the nomination unanimous.

Three ringing cheers were led by Condon, Jo Rich, eagle flapping wings and screaming like a veritable bird of freedom. Graham thanked the convention for Burke, then rushed madly out to notify the nominee by wire.

Frank Harris of Washington, and Colonel J. W. Jones of Alturas, were placed in nomination for lieutenant-governor.

Annals said he supposed Jones was a state nominee. Reed retorted that the state making was limited to Ada county, which was greeted with yells of applause. The vote stood, Jones, 51; Harris, 43. Colonel Jones is the editor of the Black-foot News.

The convention adjourned till morning at 10 o'clock. Unless a new deal is made, Ballentine will be the choice of the voters for Congress, though Stevenson was feeling very sore over his defeat, and may effect some other deal.

To Build Up the Order of Iron Hall Again.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Supreme Chief Justice Somers of the Order of Iron Hall left Chicago this evening for Baltimore, where he is to begin the regeneration of the organization.

Will Continue the Strike.

Lackawanna and Nickel Plate Switchmen Will Fight to the Bitter End.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Tonight the Lackawanna, Lackawanna and Western switchmen held a meeting and resolved to continue the strike. The strike is now being led by Chicago as leader. They propose to fight the battle to the end.

The Nickel Plate switchmen followed the lead of the Lackawanna men and again voted to continue the strike. They were also not consulted by Grand Master Sweeney before he declared the strike off.

LATER—WILL NOT STRIKE.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—The report sent out earlier that the Lackawanna, Lackawanna and Western and Nickel Plate switchmen would not strike, is erroneous.

Statement arose from the fact that the meeting was held for that purpose but the men were unable to secure a leader.

Grand Jury Investigate.

COURT ALLEN, Aug. 25.—The United States grand jury began work today investigating the riots in the Cour d'Alene mines. Charles Sweeney, one of the owners of the Emma and Last Chance, was the principal witness. Several other residents of Cour d'Alene were also before the jury. A week may elapse before the trials begin.

Venezuela Revolt.

New York, Aug. 25.—The Herald's Trinidad (W. L.) dispatch says: The starting movements come from Venezuela which puts a new phase on the revolution in that country. Urdaneta, it is said, declared himself dictator of the republic and formed a cabinet with Casanova as minister of the interior, congress was dissolved and several senators were arrested. Crepo is massing all his forces about Victoria in preparation for a general and decisive engagement. The banks in Caracas are all closed and the inhabitants in the city in a state of excitement.

HAPPENINGS HEREABOUTS.

Boys clothing, men's pantomons, a large assortment just received at Barnes, Lewis & Co., to be sold at the lowest prices.

JACOB GINSBERG, a native of Germany, and George H. Lawrence, a native of England, were yesterday admitted to citizenship by Judge Anderson.

In the police court yesterday, Attorney T. H. Lock took in all his dignity, stated that he understood the city, territory or the United States had entered a complaint against one Samuel Henry for harboring a felon, and the defendant had been found guilty and sentence set for a future date. He would agree to see that the law was paid if time was given, and sentence was resuspended until next Saturday.

Swing gamblers were brought to police headquarters last week, but their names did not appear on the police blotter until several days later. The gamblers also failed to show for several days that their cases were over called. They deposited $50 each, which was held until they were called. Are gamblers so highly respected by police court officials that their names are to be kept from the public when they are wanted for violating the law?

LABOR TROUBLES.

committees on rules. George Olds of the Canadian Pacific, arrived today and attended the meeting.

At the conclusion of the discussion of import rates, as affecting domestic traffic, continued without reaching any conclusion. The subject of freight rates from Colorado ports was referred to a committee, and the meeting adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Against the Reading Combine.

THEATRON, N. J., Aug. 25.—Chancellor McGill late this afternoon filed an opinion in the great Reading combine suit. It covers twenty-five pages of closely typewritten legal cap, and is a voluminous document. He grants the preliminary injunction asked for by the attorney-general, grants the restraining order heretofore granted, and in addition, enjoins the Port Reading company from operating the Central railroad and ordering the Central company to operate its own line and retain its own property. The decision is a sweeping one in favor of the state.

A SICK STRANGER.

He Has a Spasm at the Rio Grande Western Depot.

Shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday was received at the police station that a man was dying at the Rio Grande Western depot. He had fallen on the platform in a spasm and it was supposed received fatal injury.

The patrol wagon was immediately sent to the depot and the unfortunate person conveyed to the city hall, where he was attended upon by Dr. Meacham, who pronounced the man suffering from a fit of a tetanic nature. He was neatly clad in a summer suit of gray check, was light complexioned, wore a rather heavy mustache and was about thirty years of age. His left leg was amputated near the ankle, and he had an artificial limb, which was adjusted at the knee. Between $25 and $50 were on his person, but there were no papers or other articles that gave the slightest clue as to who he was or from where he came. His jaws and teeth were firmly closed and his body twitched convulsively while perspiration oozed from his face and forehead.

Dr. Meacham was unable to tell whether or not the man would recover. He ordered him to be kept in the city hall until he had recovered. The man was reported as somewhat better.

HE WAS THE WRONG MAN.

An American Sailor Has Indignities of a Brutal Nature Heaped Upon Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Edward Carlin, a sailor formerly in the employ of the Pacific Mail company, will enter a claim with the state department at Washington against the government of Ecuador for $30,000 damages. Carlin says he went to Ecuador in 1883 and was thrown into the vilest sort of a dungeon, where he was brutally treated for several months. He was then forced to work in the mines a year, and after that returned to prison where he was kept nine months more. The only explanation offered for the indignities that he was the wrong man. After his release Carlin was told that he had a remarkable resemblance to an Englishman who had availed a number of people, and it was on this account he had been arrested.

WILL NOT HANG HIM.

Sheriff at San Francisco Refuses to Execute Murderer John McNulty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Sheriff Laumeister, acting on the advice of his attorneys, will not proceed with the execution of murderer John McNulty tomorrow or at any other time, until he is re-sentenced by the competent court. The attorney, J. H. Harnes and Attorney-General Hart advised the sheriff to proceed with the execution, but he refused.

Among their callers yesterday at the Hotel Templeton was Miss Mary, an average acquaintance of Miss Virginia. Mr. W. G. Hamilton was quite attentive to the young ladies but he had allowed his usual courteous spirit to admit the supremacy of moods and the one that maddened his mind was that the ladies were not to be trifled with.

When the young man was missed a few minutes Miss Hamilton would send the bell boy to his room to see what was the matter. Mr. Penbody's aversion to No. 12 is not so comical as it may appear. At Mammoth Hot Springs he was assigned the total number and he took two horrible chills from which he has not yet fully recovered. Miss Lillian was enough to tell THE HERALD reporter that she liked Savannah much better than Salt Lake, which is an offense which her Utah friends will not forgive her.
